What would you do if you unexpectedly found yourself stranded on a desert island? You'd simply pull out your cell phone and call or text for help, of course! But what if you had no cell phone—or no water, clothes or any other necessities? You'd pray to be rescued, for survival, and for your very life. God would hear your prayers and answer them. But you'd have to listen carefully for the answers, because they don't usually come how or when we expect, and we sometimes discover clarification in surprising places.

God breaks into our lives when and where we least expect.
