BIBLE MATRIX By Michael Bull

Mike Bull is a graphic designer who lives and works in the Blue Mountains west of Sydney, Australia. He and his wife, Karen, have three children. He is passionate about understanding and teaching the Bible.

Bible Matrix helps readers understand the entire Bible without years of study. Bull makes it simple by following the basic seven-point pattern of Creation. The pattern is the cycle of a human day and a human life. It is the pattern of the Tabernacle and the process of agriculture. It orders the rise and fall of nations and empires. Bible Matrix will open up the Bible for all readers.

FRACTURED FELLOWSHIPS By Williamson J. Allen

Bill Allen lives in Connecticut with his wife and four children. He has been a pastor of Evangelical churches for more than 35 years. His accomplishments include founding BRIDGE Associates, directing national business seminars and leading church tours to Israel, Greece, Turkey and Vienna. In his spare time, Bill can be found in the garden, reading a history book, or on the golf course.

Fractured Fellowships explores how the church began to fall out of love with Jesus Christ. Author William Allen traces the problem back 1700 years, to a time when the church began to fall in love with itself, and provides several ideas for change.

JONAH, JOHN, AND THE SECOND GREATEST (BUT MOST AVOIDED) COMMANDMENT By Kevin Harvey

Having both taught in the church and worked in Christian publishing for several years, Kevin Harvey now focuses on youth ministry. He and his wife, Amy, have two children and currently reside in Wake Forest, North Carolina.

When asked which was the greatest commandment, Jesus answered: Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. And then, he continued to the second: Love thy neighbor as thyself. It is this second greatest commandment that is the focus of Kevin Harvey's new book. With clarity and urgency, Harvey explains just who our "neighbors" are and what it means to truly love them as Jesus intended.

IF YOU CAN'T COME IN, SMILE AS YOU GO BY By Cindy Rice Holster

Cindy Rice Holster was born and raised in East Texas. After getting married and raising two sons, she returned to school—Texas A&M University—and graduated with a degree in English/creative writing with a minor in history. She lives with her husband, Jesse, in a suburb of Houston.

Cindy Rice Holster's collection of short stories takes you inside the lives of a community in a small, rural Texas town during the Great Depression. A collection of 10 short stories, If You Can't Come In, Smile as You Go By reflects the resilience of the human spirit. With tremendous amounts of grace and determination, the characters in these stories survive the unthinkable—rape, racism, mental illness, infidelity, ignorance and intolerance. With a keen eye for detail, Holster creates a landscape that dances off the page.

BIBLICAL AND CULTURAL CONCEPTS OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE
By Rev. Dr. Ralph W. Huling

Rev. Dr. Ralph W. Huling is the pastor of Saint James Baptist Church in Columbus, Georgia and New Hope Baptist Church in Lumpkin, Georgia. He received his Doctorate of Theology from Andersonville Theology Seminary in Camilla, Georgia. Huling, a dynamic educator and theologian of international reputation, is an adjunct professor at two local colleges. Both he and his wife, Dorothy, teach at the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education. They have two wonderful daughters.

Divorce. It's a word that has become all too common. In fact, half of all marriages end in divorce. So, what's the answer? Pastor and author Rev. Dr. Ralph W. Huling gives us the solution by showing us God's blueprint for marriage. In Huling's own words: "God can take a marriage that appears headed off course and redirect the course of that marriage for smooth sailing." A must-have reference for anyone devoted to their committed relationship.

PARADISE
By Vladimir Imakaev

Vladimir Imakaev was born in 1982 in Odessa, Ukraine. He moved to Idaho in 2003 and became a US citizen in 2007. Fluent in 3 languages, he has a bachelor's degree in theology and is a renowned youth pastor. Paradise, his first novel, became a bestseller in Russia when he was only 24 years old.

The Tree of Life in the Garden of Eden may be more than just a myth. And if so, he who possesses it could harness incredible power.

To this end, a small group, including some of the best scientists to date, embarks on an expedition in search of the forbidden garden, leading them into the belly of Iraq. But will they return?

Already a bestseller in Russia, the book that has captivated thousands of readers is now available for the first time in English.

GLASS GIRL

By Laura Anderson Kurk

Laura Anderson Kurk bets she has more cringe-worthy teenage memories than you. She calls writing for teen girls and young adults great therapy, especially since she knows teens who've been hit with life's cruel, one-two punch and still find reason to hope.

Kurk holds a B.A. in English from Abilene Christian University and a Master's in English from Texas A&M University. She lives in College Station, Texas with her husband and two children.

In this powerful debut, Laura Anderson Kurk offers a rare glimpse into the heart and mind of a grieving sibling. Glass Girl shines light on the tragedy of loss and lends honesty to the discussion of how violence impacts families. At turns funny and devastating, Glass Girl tells one girl's story of moving from loneliness to love and from sorrow to hope.

THE LOVE OF A FATHER By Faith Parker

Faith Parker was raised in Florida with the blessing of being raised in a Christian home. She is faithfully committed to doing whatever it takes to make a difference in the lives of others. She is a real estate broker residing in Hickory, North Carolina with her husband Jerry.

The Love of a Father is a personal story of the life author Faith Parker shared with her father, who gave her some of the most important treasures in her life. After his death, Faith noticed a parallel between her father and the Heavenly Father as she allowed God to fill the void and begin a transformational process in her life. We sometimes underestimate the value of our Father's love and the priceless gifts they offer. With this book, she encourages readers to look for the treasures in the Heavenly Father, cherish them, and share them with the rest of the world.

THE PRODIGAL BROTHER

By Sue Thompson

Sue Thompson has been a popular motivational speaker for more than 20 years. Visit her at www.PeopleSetFree.org.

Most people know the story of the prodigal son—the son who demanded his inheritance and then lost it on wild living. But there were two sons in the story. There was the older son, the one who watched the events unfold and felt incredibly hurt by his father’s seemingly preferential treatment. Those who grew up in a family with a prodigal sibling understand that cry. Sue Thompson shares her own story of struggle and hope, offering ways to heal the ache of feeling in second place in a parent’s affection. Anyone who’s ever been “the good kid” will find empathy and encouragement to unload the emotional baggage of growing up with a prodigal sibling in the family.

MAN FROM MACEDONIA By Rev. Aaron Johnson with Deb Cleveland

A sharecropper's son, Rev. Aaron Johnson led sit-ins under Dr. King's tutelage, advised North Carolina governors, and served as state corrections secretary while being pastor to a Baptist church. Deb Cleveland is the author of Hugs from Heaven: Portraits of a Woman's Faith, a minister's wife and mother of three sons.

In telling his life story, Rev. Aaron Johnson takes us to the front lines of the fight for civil and human rights in our country over the last 50 years. Whether being beaten and dragged from a dime store lunch counter, standing blindfolded before a Ku Klux Klan meeting or praying arm-in-arm with a death-row inmate, Johnson shows us the devastation of hatred and fear. Told with humility and humor, Johnson's story reminds us that one individual—with focus and faith—can effect great change.

ONE BUT NOT THE SAME By Chris Williamson

Chris Williamson lives in Franklin, Tennessee with his wife Dorena and their four children. He is the founder and senior pastor of Strong Tower Bible Church, a diverse congregation committed to making a difference around the world. Williamson is a passionate leader and outstanding communicator of God's Word.

America is dreadfully divided over politics, race, gender and class. Unfortunately, the church is not much better. Galatians 3:28 states, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus." Paul gives us the kingdom paradigm for how Christians can be one without being the same.

Sarah Denton Baun lives in Nashville, Tennessee with her husband, Glenn Baun, a retired Nazarene pastor. Baun has traveled a long, diverse path and is faithful to the Lord and church she loves. She wrote Denton Family Diary while in her 80s as a tribute to her family's trials, tribulations and blessings.

Denton Family Diary is a touching true story of one brave family, the Dentons, and their work to bring the Gospel to people in various countries between the 1940s and 1970s. Today the family is still bound together by the memory of their past experiences. Baun enriched these memoirs with detailed pictures of events, places and people from the novel.

HUNGRY FOR LIFE By Dave Blundell

Dave Blundell was ordained in 1998 and served as a pastor in a Christian & Missionary Alliance church for six years. Dave later served as the Director of Global Operations for Global Aid Network, leading relief and development projects in numerous countries around the world. In 2003 he founded Hungry For Life International, and now works as the executive director of a growing team of staff and volunteers. Dave and his wife, Heidi, have two children, Caleb and Abby.

Hungry For Life articulates a bold vision to see the world transformed by a global movement of compassion and justice. The author presents a concise summary of physical poverty in the developing world and spiritual poverty in the developed world. Hungry For Life is a prophetic call for followers of Christ, and specifically their leaders, to move away from religious institutionalism and move toward lives of simplicity and compassion.

PREGNANT AT 16 By Lori Ghiata Bowser

When Lori Bowser became pregnant as a teenager in 1974, she chose life for her son Danny. When she married Joe, a Christian, he adopted Danny as his own. Lori and Joe enjoy easy river kayaking, mountain hikes, casual evening walks and entertaining guests. In Pregnant at 16, Bowser reflects on her decision to keep her baby after getting pregnant as a teenager in 1974. She creates a vivid portrait of the teenage social climate that rings true even today. She handles difficult topics—teenage pregnancy and abortion—with tact. Her experience in the medical field brings interesting insight to an often-veiled issue.
