A Focused Faith

Janet S. Williams

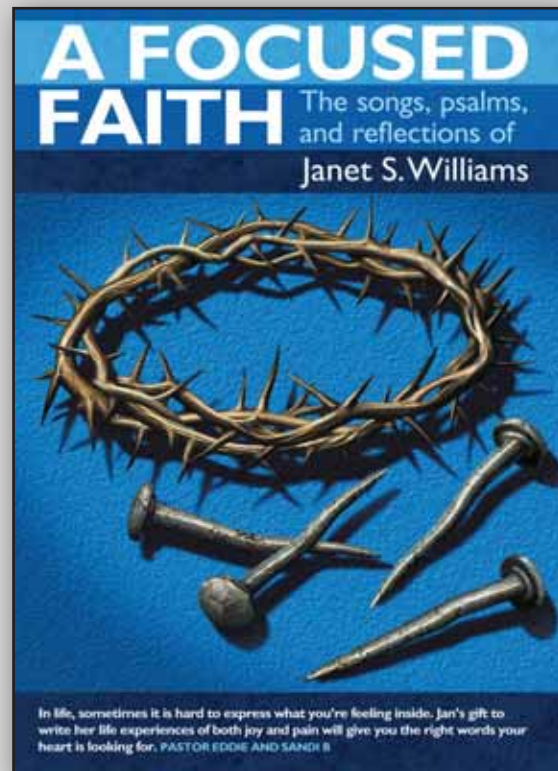

A Focused Faith is about our mission as Christians to bring the love, mercy, and saving grace of Christ to the hurting, the hungry, the thirsty, and the helpless, on planet earth. To impact the world in which we live, we must first focus our faith firmly on God, who created our world. There are people dying every day all over the earth without Christ's saving grace or mercy. We have Christ's love living within us and we must dare to give it away. Janet S. Williams work reflects on many different aspects of life, but all have a deep focus on the healing power of the cross of Christ.

A Layman's Christianity

Ken Dickason

Sordid romance! Gripping intrigue! Fast-paced action!

None of these really describe a book about theology, and they, surprisingly enough, do not apply to A Layman's Christianity, either.

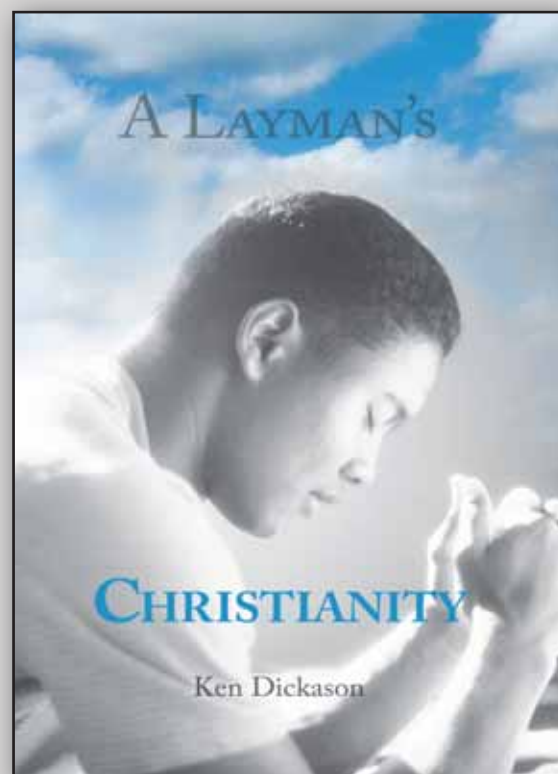

Every man Ken Dickason offers a well thought out book, replete with scriptural references, written not by a dreary doctorate of theology, nor by a "hip," "young" pastor of a mega-church, but by an average Joe. Written from a young man's perspective, A Layman's Christianity delves into the belief that everyone has the right to think about who God is and what He wants from our lives.

Bittersweet Grace

Percy Pendergrass

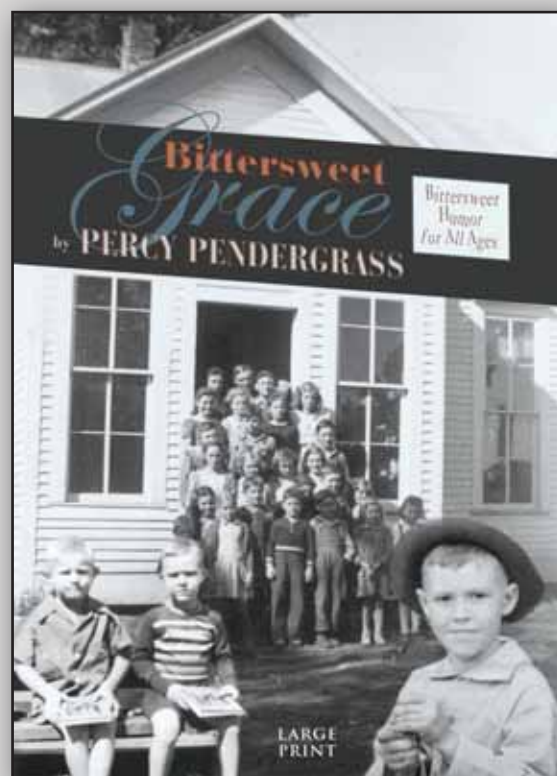

The silence of grace intertwines within this anecdotal review from Percy, a child born to divorced parents in rural Appalachia in the early 1940s. World War II is coming to an end, and a fear of communism smothers his community. He is encompassed by a strong spiritual family and adults friends who give encouragement and advice. However, Percy's perception of himself is tattered and broken from guilt. This narrative of nonfiction gives Percy freedom to cradle his own perceptions of his truth through the muddy journey as a young boy slaying his own dragons with bittersweet victories.

Final Absolution

John Carpenter

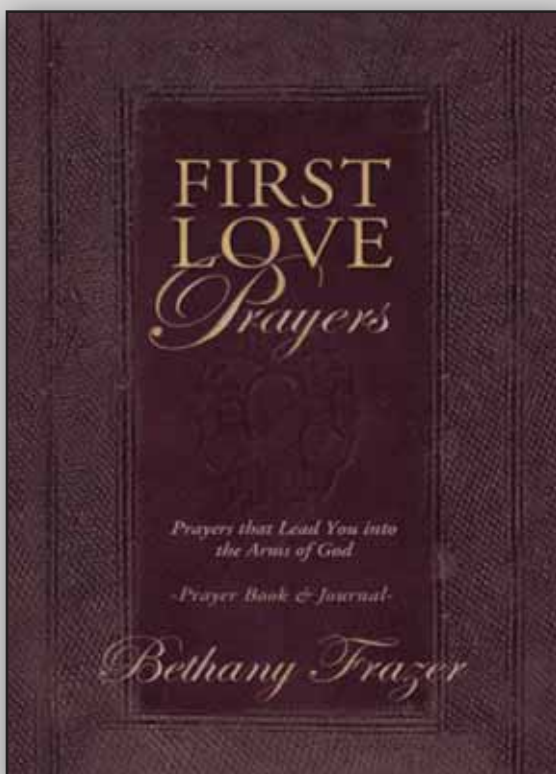

The first prediction of the Moabite parchment is coming to pass. Civilization is on the brink of chaos. In the small Midwestern town of Thorntree, Father Jacob Winston watches helplessly as his friends are transformed into hideous creatures and die screaming on their seventh day. Two documents holding overwhelming power are discovered, one to alleviate their suffering, but with disastrous consequences. Together, their contents could shape the future of the church and the world. John Carpenter is a graduate of the University of New Orleans. He currently lives in Northwest Missouri with his wife Cheryl and their two dogs, Wylie and Chaser.

Golden Nuggets from the Mountains

Fred B. Lunsford

It was widely known that gold had been found in the mountains. Men would put in endless hours panning for gold in the small mountain streams. Now and then, someone would find a gold nugget. One day, I realized that gold nuggets were not only present in these mountains, but that there were golden nuggets in the experiences of my life in these mountains. It is with great joy that I share these stories with anyone who cares to read them.

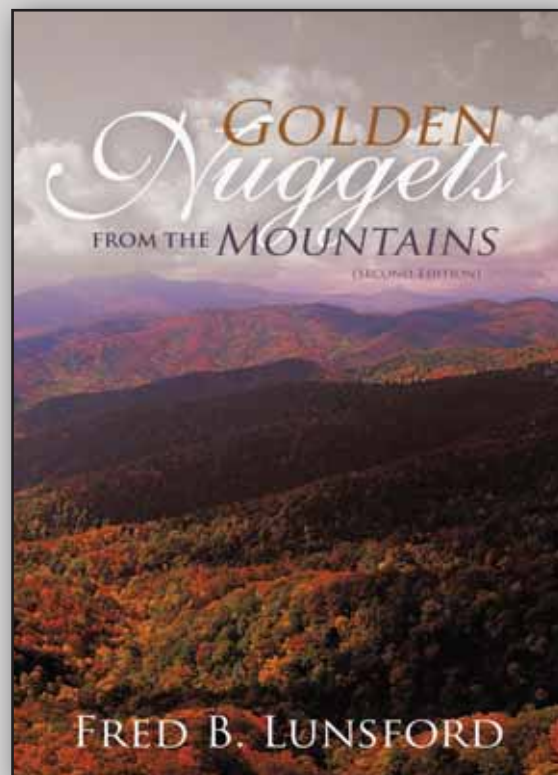

Rev. Fred B. Lunsford was born and raised in the Appalachian Mountains. He has also authored, "God's Messenger from the Mountains," and this book Glory in the Mountains: The Sound of Many Waters."

Good Morning Lord

Alicia Goodwin Jacobs

"Starting each morning with God is a must. Studying the Holy Word and talking to God everyday can change your life. I set my alarm at least 30 minutes early every day to allow time with God. Keeping a prayer journal helps me to focus on my prayer, crying out to God with an honest heart. God longs to hear from us. I started writing devotions to help me cope with difficult times and before I knew it, I set a goal of 365. Each of these devotions was revealed to me from God as we spent time together every morning and throughout the day. I hope these words will bless you as much as they have blessed me."

In Enemy Territory

Jam Ot boc

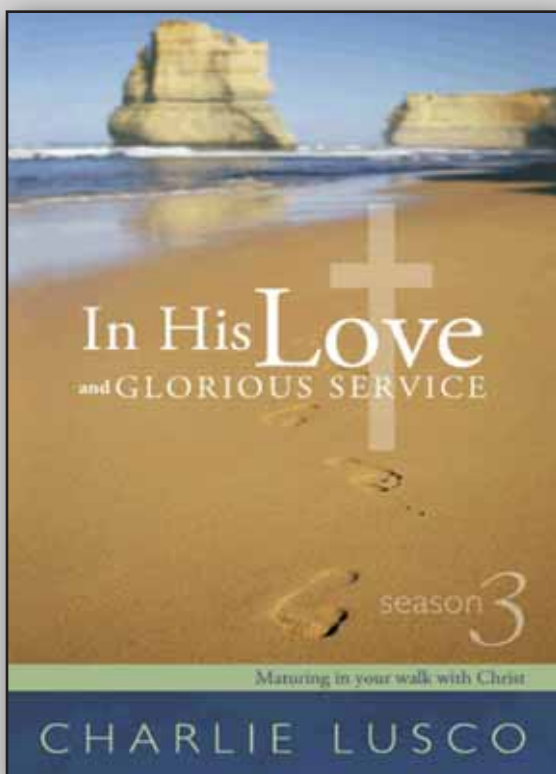

OCONUS is a military term for deployment Outside the Continental United States. Most often this means in a region that one would call 'enemy territory'. As Christians, we find ourselves deployed by the Holy Spirit in a territory that we are very familiar with but to which we no longer belong. Jesus made it clear that we can only love the world or Him, not both. We as believers have another home promised to us by the same Lord we trusted in for our salvation. So our deployment here in enemy territory is also temporary and we know in advance how it all ends!

The Greatest Commandment

David T. Steineker

The book is titled "The Greatest Commandment", since it is the most important point of the book. (John 5:41-42) If you Love the Lord your God with all your Heart, Mind, Soul, then why is there a second law? The second law really displays the same principles as the first. This is why the first commandment is the greatest or most clear description of what God calls us to do. God is a Creator, and the law is a representation of how he builds. How do you Love the Lord your God with all your Soul, Heart, and Mind? Master the second law and the first law will become clearer.
